Vieilles Vignes Blanc

RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

SONOMA COUNTY

VINTAGE 2022

IN THE VINEYARD

The fruit for our Vieilles Vignes Blanc is harvested from the heart of the cool Russian River Valley appellation from three distinctive vineyards: Ritchie, Ricioli and Fanucchi-Wood Road. The Ritchie Vineyard vines are over 40 years old and yield small clusters with ripe skins and concentrated flavors. The Ricioli Vineyard has an alluvial clay-loam soil composition and is planted to the Musque clone of Sauvignon Blanc lending floral aromas to the wine. Fanucchi-Wood Road is an organically grown and dry-farmed vineyard with the vines receiving great sun exposure resulting in bright fruit flavors.

CONVERSATIONS WITH THE WINEMAKER

The grapes were hand-harvested and whole-cluster pressed and fermented in neutral oak barrels prior to bottling.

TASTING NOTES

Vibrant floral scents of lemon blossom and zesty orange marmalade burst forth from the glass. Opulent and revitalizing flavors enchant the palate, teasing with delicate notes of white peach, succulent pear, and crisp lime zest. This wine showcases seamlessly integrated acidity that gracefully persists through its extended, refreshing finish. A genuinely enchanting and revitalizing white wine experience.
