Note: The earnings shown above do not constitute as a promise of income. These figures also do not fully represent Boisset Independent Ambassadors' profits, since they do not include business expenses, such as the monthly Cellar Suite fee ($19 per month, or $160 per year when paid annually), optional event registration fees (which vary by event), office supplies, insurance premiums, travel, etc. incurred by Ambassadors in the promotion of their Boisset businesses. There are no guarantees regarding earnings, and the success or failure of each Boisset Independent Ambassador's business depends on many factors, including their own skills and personal effort dedicated. You should not rely on the performance of other Boisset Independent Ambassadors to indicate what you can expect to earn.

Paid-As Title references the title that an Ambassador achieved in a singular month. Ambassadors will reference themselves by their recognized title, which is the highest titled they achieved in the trailing 12 months. Holding a recognized title does not guarantee that an Ambassador will be paid as that title.

TYPICAL EXPENSES OF A BOISSET INDEPENDENT AMBASSADOR

Boisset Independent Ambassadors do not purchase inventory: instead, Ambassadors make sales through their own unique sales websites. All sales are inventoried by Boisset Collection and are shipped directly to the customer placing the order.

The only mandatory expense for a Boisset Independent Ambassador is the Cellar Suite subscription ($19 per month, or $160 per year when paid annually). Cellar Suite provides each Ambassador's ecommerce website, as well as marketing, reporting, & training tools.

Ambassadors are also encouraged to participate in the company's optional training events, since they offer training and resources that may not be available elsewhere. The typical cost of each training event is set forth below:

- Boisset Ambassador Retreat in Napa, CA. The registration fee for this two-day conference was $650 in 2023. Boisset Collection provided lunch on both days and dinner on the second night. Boisset Independent Ambassadors were responsible for their own flight, hotel, and transportation to and from the conference. Attendees were allowed to bring one guest to the social events during the conference, at an additional cost of $150.
- Optional Property Tour in Napa, CA. The registration fee for this one-day event, held the day after the Boisset Ambassador Retreat, was $125. Boisset Collection provided lunch and transportation between Boisset properties.
- Boisset Ambassador Summer Wine Camp. The registration fee for this one-day virtual event was $50. An optional wine-education package was made available for $100 (Retail value: $216) that provided 4 bottles of wine, shipped to their homes.

INCENTIVE TRIP & OTHER REWARDS OFFERED IN 2023

In addition to earnings opportunities, Boisset Independent Ambassadors may be eligible to earn additional awards and incentives. In 2023:

- All Boisset Independent Ambassadors were eligible to earn the annual incentive trip to France, of which each Ambassador could earn a trip for 1 or a trip for 2, as well as cash bonuses for those that earned beyond a trip for 2. Of all active Boisset Ambassadors who were eligible, less than 5% earned attendance to this trip.
- All Boisset Independent Ambassadors were eligible to earn a variety of incentive rewards for meeting specific performance goals each month, ranging from product credits and wine tasting experiences, to hotel upgrades at the Ambassador Retreat.
- New Boisset Independent Ambassadors, while in their first 90 days of enrollment, were eligible for cash bonuses based on meeting specific performance goals.
