OUR MAISON STYLE

Haute Couture is a composition of the best of France has to offer tailor made into a beautiful elixir. The stylist's secret is the key to her creation.

WINEMAKING NOTES

The grapes were pressed and fermented into a still wine. The wine was bottled with the liqueur de tirage to start secondary fermentation in the méthode traditionnelle or traditional method. After disgorgement and right before final corking, dosage of 27g/l was added.

TASTING NOTES

Pale pink in color with enticing aromas and flavors of juicy cherry, blackberry and raspberry. On the palate, this rosé is creamy and has the perfect dosage for a delicately sweet finish.
