Ambassador Dashboard

- Your dashboard is the first thing you will see when you log in to your ambassador account with Boisset Collection.
- From here you can get a quick overview of your business as well as click on individual widgets to get detailed reports for more in-depth information.

Click this button if you'd like to place an order directly on your ambassador account. This could be an order for wines for your personal use, wines or flights for a tasting, or a gift for one of your customers, for example.

'View Personal Orders' shows you your order history on this account. Here you can see order statuses as well as receipts for all of the orders you've placed on this account.

Use this button to place orders for your customers.

'View Customer Orders' will take you to your Personal Volume report, where you can see who has made purchases on your website.

Here you will see your photo, name, city and state. Where it says 'Ambassador' you will see your title. If you are a Director, for example, you will see 'Director' here instead of 'Ambassador'. See the Account Management training document to see how to update your account information and/or upload a photo.

The Ambassador Resource Center includes training, business tips, wine information, and several other resources to help you succeed in your business. You can find marketing materials, current promotions, tasting menus, and many other resources here.

The Vine includes the latest news for ambassadors including information for ambassador calls, events, ongoing specials, system updates, monthly recognition for ambassadors and more!

This widget shows you your current title. You can use the drop down menu with the arrow to see what is required to reach your next title or any other title. When you select a title you will notice that your dashboard changes to reflect requirements for that title. You can find out more detailed information about titles in the Ambassador Career Plan document.

Group Volume (GV) is your Personal Volume plus your Team's Volume, not including your Downline Director generations. Again, you can find more about Group Volume in the Ambassador Career Plan document.

Personal Volume (PV) is the total volume of your customer(s) orders plus any personal order volume. PV is used to calculate monthly title qualifications, base commission rate, and other incentive programs. Click this button to view your Personal Volume Report.

Organization Volume (OV) is your Group Volume plus your Downline Director generations. Note that this number can only be equal to or higher than your Group Volume. Click this button to view your Organization Report to see your team.

The Business Period widget shows the date as well as how many days are remaining in the current month.

'My Directors' reflects if you have anyone in your team who has reached the Director title or above and if they have qualified for the month by reaching a minimum of 500 PV, 4,000 GV, and 4 qualified first-level ambassadors. This widget will be useful if your title is Director or above to see qualifications for reaching higher titles. Clicking on this goes to your Organization Report.

'My Ambassadors' shows how many qualified ambassadors you have for the current business period. Ambassadors who have not yet reached Director title must have 250 PV to qualify for a given month. Clicking this also goes to your Organization Report.

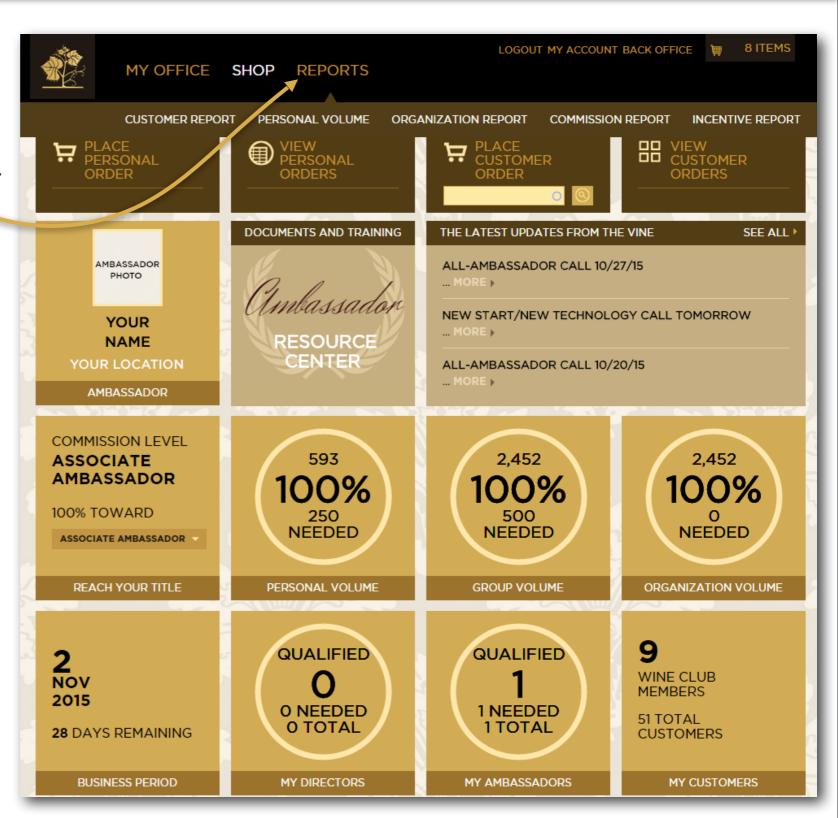

This widget shows you how many total unique customers you have on your personal website. It also shows how many wine club members you have. Clicking on this will go to your Customer Report where you can view your customers' orders.
