Medium-bodied and showcasing delicate finesse, this Pinot Noir is gracefully woven with well-integrated tannins, leading to a mesmerizing finish.

WHAT THE NUMBER 37 SIGNIFIES: Completed in 1937, the Golden Gate Bridge is the gateway to California wine country. It evoked the dream that Jean-Charles had the moment he crossed it at 11 years old on his first journey into wine country. "I had a dream to parachute past the Golden Gate Bridge onto a surfboard on the bay below! The bridge is the symbol of Marin County, California wine country, and the pioneering spirit of America."

As the Golden Gate Bridge represented an ENIGMATIC entry into the newly developing Northern California wine country, it's yet to be fully discovered potential awaited as a young Jean-Charles Boisset dreamt of turning the DELICATE grapes into wines never before imagined. From Napa to Sonoma and now Marin, his vision has become a reality in this REFINED and spirited Pinot Noir.
